

Planning Commission Public Hearing - TARC 2025 Presentation

TARC representatives were invited to present at the regular biweekly Planning Commission Public meeting, and discuss the TARC 2025 planning process. This presentation served as Planning Commissioners' continuing education training hours.

Location/Date

514 W. Liberty St
September 5, 2024
5:30 pm

Weather

Indoor

Team Participants

Aida Copic, Director of Planning

Attendees

12 - Planning Commission members and Metro Planning and Design office staff

Event Summary

TARC Director of Planning shared power point presentation, explained the financial circumstances leading to the TARC 2025 planning process, the three concepts, questions being asked of the community, and the proposed timeline. An engaged discussion, questions and answer followed the presentation. Questions and comments included:

- What are current sources of funding for TARC?
- How a bout future sources of funding?
- How is TARC going to serve employment and education?
- Good understanding for TARC's financial situation
- General support for additional funding for TARC
- Loss of service area
- Impact of paratransit?

Participant Description

Mix of men and women, ages 40-65. Good demographic representation of the community.

